

Certificate of Final Assessment

A result of 75% or more (see Grade below) shows that

Rose Moore

has successfully completed the ASCIA course

anaphylaxis NSW schools 2

June 1, 2013

anaphylaxis NSW schools 2 4.0 Grade: -

Course Participant Signature

It is essential that this course is completed in conjunction with practice using adrenaline autoinjector trainer devices. To find out how to order these, email education@allergy.org.au. To verify that this training has occurred please ensure that the following section has been completed and signed by a supervisor. The course participant shown above has correctly demonstrated how to use EpiPen and AnaPen adrenaline autoinjectors using trainer devices.

de9RZsN1CF

Note: This course has been approved by Australian Children's Education & Care Quality Authority (ACECQA).

Disclaimer:
The Australasian Society of Clinical Immunology and Allergy (ASCIA) is the peak professional body of clinical immunology and allergy specialists in Australia and New Zealand. This certificate can be provided as proof that you have completed an ASCIA anaphylaxis e-training course. This certificate does not however, constitute a qualification (ASCIA is not an accrediting body), and no reference should be made of being endorsed or certified by ASCIA.

Position

Signature